About D Club

Coding is what makes it possible to create computer software, apps and websites. The browser, Operating system, the apps on phone, Face book etc. all are made with code. In D Club, students work on various projects (i.e. building an app, website etc...). All levels of experience are welcome!

Design, Develop and Deploy Club (commonly known as D Club) is a group of students who tries to innovate and foster technical activities and is enthusiastic about coding, Algorithmic Programming, App development, Web Designing and all other aspects of programming. D club is formed to create a coding culture among students.

It works under the guidance of the Faculties and External Guidance if required from the alumni. Usually headed by Team leader, the club is responsible for conducting programming and development events for the students. With its motto: “Develop and Deploy”, D Club strives to inculcate and foster the culture of programming among the students.

This Club is an opportunity served to student to see their ideas come to fruition, forming a new community built on creativity, teamwork, entrepreneurship, and learning.
