Effective Curriculum delivery

We at JIMS always focus on implementation of curriculum through well defined structured procedure to impart quality education. Following innovative methods are used for effective curricular delivery:

Initiative	Practice
Course Objective	During initial lectures students are informed about course objectives and learning outcome.
Use of Technology	• Moodle (Learning Management System) • E-journals • Zoom Application for delivering online sessions • Encouraging students to use online compilers
Student development	• Career Guidance (Online session) • Cultural Program (Online session) • Skill Development (Add-on courses) • English Communication (Co-curricular activities) • Online Workshops And Technical Training
Quest for excellence	The institute ensure better teaching by • Recruiting well qualified teachers • Ph. D. Holders: 08 • Registered for Ph. D.: 05

Apart from above listed points the institute also ensures effective curriculum delivery by practicing:

- Distribution of teaching workload is in accordance with teachers' strength and area of specialization.
- Periodic rotation of the papers taught by the faculty to avoid academic stagnation and to remain intellectually engaged.
- Timely, continuous and careful evaluation of student assignments.
- English Communication, Workshops and technical training
- Training and placement officer organizes a skill development session, Technical training, workshops, soft skill etc. in collaboration with Industry experts.
