Feedback Analysis Report 2021-22

Feedback Analysis on design and review of Syllabus

Introduction

JIMS being an affiliated institute has limited flexibility in changing the curriculum. The institute collects feedback through informal discussion with students, alumni, employers and teachers and pass on to the concerned Board of Studies at workshop on curriculum revision.

Feedback Process

- I. Feedback collected: The institute has various channels to collect and document responses on curriculum from different stakeholders, such as students, Alumni, industry and faculty.

Stakeholder	Event/Occasion	Tool
Alumni	Alumni meet Informal visits	Online Feedback form/ Discussions
Industry/ Employer	Industrial Visits Campus Drives Job Fair Faculty Visit	Online Feedback form/ Discussions
Teachers	Director, HOD meetings Internal Audit Committee meetings	Discussions/ Online Feedback form /
Students	Regular Teaching sessions	Online Feedback form / Informal Discussions

- II. Feedback Analysis: After collecting feedback from these meetings, the data is then processed. The analysis report is submitted to the Director. SPPU conducts Directors (of affiliated colleges) meeting where director suggest for revision of new courses
- III. Actions Taken: Director reviews the analysis reports and initiates actions.
