Differently abled (Divyanganjan) friendliness

Being a professional programme there are a very few number of students who are differently abled. However, institute ensures that infrastructure facilities are made available for differently abled students.

As per government, AICTE & university norms, institute provides all desired facilities to differently abled students. The college infrastructure provides ramps, rest rooms & library in the ground floor of the building. The class rooms and examinations are arranged in the ground floor for differently abled students. Institute also provides Personal Attention, Special seating arrangement, time extension (as per the University/Govt. rules) for differently abled students during examination.

The following are the facilities given to differently abled students:-

- ✓ Provision of wheelchairs, ramp facility, rest rooms/special toilets, Library & classrooms in the ground floor
- ✓ Examination halls are provided on the ground floor.
- ✓ Support staff is available on request to assist physically challenged students.
- ✓ Extra time in examination as per university norms.
- ✓ Provision of Scribes for examination: As per university norms writers are provided for internal & university examinations.
